Contents and Index of Volume 23, 1942

STATISTICAL BULLETIN

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

CONTENTS

JANUARY PAGE

Mortality Record for 1941 ... 1
The Tempo of Military Losses in the Two World Wars 5
Accidents in the Death Toll ... 8
Statistical Information, Please ... 10

FEBRUARY

Fit to Fight ... 1
Dividends in Man Power ... 2
Is America's Population Increasing? ... 3
Death Claim Disbursements in 1941 ... 6
Family History and Longevity ... 9

MARCH

Health Contrasts World Wars I and II ... 1
Bicycle Accident Fatalities Increase Again ... 4
The Changing Aspect of Tuberculosis Mortality, 1920 to 1940 ... 5
The Stature of American Women ... 9

APRIL

America's Human Resources for War Production ... 1
Accidents Costly in Man Power ... 3
Australia and America—A Parallel ... 4
Heart Disease and Public Health ... 6
Excellent Health Record of Early War Months ... 9

MAY

Longevity Almost Doubled in Six Decades ... 1
The Chances of Marriage ... 4
A Profitable By-Product of the War ... 6
Army Health Continues Excellent ... 8

JUNE

How Illiterate Are We? ... 1
The Chances of a Golden Wedding—Fifty Years Ago and Now ... 3
Special Hazards to Swimmers This Summer ... 5
Smallpox at Its Lowest Ebb in 1941 ... 6
Regional Distribution of Goiter ... 8

JULY PAGE

Excellent Health Record of a War Year ... 1
Insulin Comes of Age ... 3
The Chances of Survival for Stated Periods ... 5
Three Decades of Cancer Mortality ... 7

AUGUST

We Outlive Our Expectation of Life ... 1
Accidental Shooting Fatalities in Wartime ... 4
Cancer and Tuberculosis—A Contrast ... 5
Births and Season of the Year ... 7

SEPTEMBER

Suicide and War ... 1
Rheumatic Fever a Major Health Problem Today ... 2
Heating Equipment as a Winter Hazard ... 6
Some Social Consequences of Contrasting Ages of Parents ... 7
Recent Publications of the Statistical Bureau ... 10

OCTOBER

Mortality Report for the First Nine Months of 1942 ... 1
The Sex Ratio in Our Population Since 1850 ... 3
Ideal Weights for Women ... 6
The Problem of Syphilis ... 8

NOVEMBER

Mothers Today Are Younger ... 1
Fatal Accidents to Infants in Wartime ... 3
Geographic Contrasts in Tuberculosis in Adolescence and Maturity ... 5
Pneumonia Death Rate Lowest on Record ... 8

DECEMBER

Safeguarding the Health of American Troops Abroad 1
A Peak Year in American Marriages ... 4
No Shortage of Babies During Our First Year of War 7
Accidental Deaths During 1942 ... 9